Summary: From Marco's POV. Could be anyone else's, however. Wonderings about responsibility yet met with a wearied acceptance. Please R/R.

Frustration

Frustration

[A/N: This is narrated by Marco.]

I don't want to fight the Yeerks.

I want a normal life.

But my mom is captured.

And so I will fight.

I never wanted pity

But sometimes I feel so alone.

I consider showing my feelings for once.

But I will always keep my mask.

It's my job to cheer the group

But sometimes I need it myself.

Yet if I don't, the group will collapse.

And so on I will joke.

My life is a wreck

I have no desire to live

But fate lies on my shoulders.

And so I will fight.

Why do I have such difficult choices?

Why did the Yeerks ever invade our happy little home?

Why?

Why do I have to save the world?
